Sea Sunday 8th July 2018

Today the Catholic Church with all other Churches in New Zealand and around the world remembers and prays for all seafarers.

Seafarers are far from family, they endure unsafe working conditions and are paid low wages because of isolation from authorities. Lonely, unloved and treated badly, they are for us, the suffering Christ.

Please pray for them in Mass. Take a brochure available on the foyer table if interested in this apostolate, Stella Maris or Apostleship of the Sea

Fr Jack Smith's Message

Kia Ora to all parishioners of Saint Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors Peter Richardson from the Diocese visited Audrey this week to look over Health and Safety and Fire procedures in place, and Audrey will make the necessary changes required, if any. Peter travelled over with Paul Shannon RE Advisor who visited Campion College. Briega Koning and Sam Brebner have been staying upstairs and working with Campion youth.

I had a lengthy meeting with Patsy Ngata-Hills, Chaplain Gisborne hospital coming to an understanding as how do we access names of Catholic patients in hospital. The Privacy Act can have varying interpretations.

Today, Sunday 08th July, the Catholic Church along with all other Churches in NZ and around the world remembers and prays for all seafarers. Seafarers are far from family, they endure unsafe working conditions and low paid wages because of isolation from authorities. Lonely, unloved and treated badly, they are for us the suffering Christ. At the end of this month, the Coast apostolate are gathering for a small retreat at Tokomaru Bay; beginning Monday morning through to Tuesday night. Depending on numbers there is accommodation available if others would like to attend. The invitation includes people from Ruatoria, Tokomaru Bay and Tolaga Bay. You may have heard of the Ignatian Way a type of reflective, imaginative prayer. More to follow later.

Wishing all the teachers and school children a happy and safe term break.

With kind wishes to you all, Fr Jack
