Monsignor Frank's New Year Message

Dear parishioners of St. Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors, I hope that we are all enjoying the warm summer weather we have been blessed with. I'm sure, too, that all of our farmers are smiling at the recent rain.

Last week I enjoyed five wonderful days at the Cisterian Monastery at Kopua. As soon as I pass through the gates of the monastery, heaven rests over me. God is just so present. Our dear Christine Lloyd, who passed away two years ago, is fondly remembered there as a frequent guest.

At the end of Mass last Saturday evening, we as a Parish welcomed Sister Adrienne Gaille into our community. Sister will be living with Sr. Meg and assisting people in the Gisborne area who need guidance in money-management. We hope you will feel very much at home with us, Sister, God bless you.

This Saturday Sarah Cox was baptised. Sarah is nine years of age and a pupil at St. Mary's School. Sarah is the daughter of Darren Cox and Joanna Gregory. Welcome, Sarah, into our parish family. Congratulations on saying 'Yes' to Jesus' invitation.

Recently we have celebrated three weddings in the Parish: Calvin Buttimore and Lucy Gavin on 24th November, Nathan Huberts and Alix Degranges on December 27th and David Reaney and Teresa Clune on December 31st. Our prayers are with all three couples as you launch into the adventure of Marriage!

Please remember Kathy Green and Jim Kennedy who both died during the week. Kathy's Requiem was on Friday afternoon in our Church. Jim's will be delayed because his wife, Rose, is quite ill in hospital. May Kathy and Jim both rest in peace.

Fr. David Mullins SM died on Christmas Eve. For several years Fr. David served as Chaplain at the Tyburn Monastery at Ngakuru. May he rest in peace.

Fr. Jack will be taking a few days off during the week. If you watch Cricket on TV, see if you can spot him at McLean Park on Wednesday.

Kind Wishes, Mons Frank.
