Monsignor Frank's Message

Dear parishioners of St. Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors,

I am sure that we can all look back on our Holy Week ceremonies and give thanks to our Risen Lord for the blessings we enjoyed as a worshipping community. And thanks once again to all who gave of time and talent to prepare our Church and our Liturgies.

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday- a time to reflect upon the Love and Mercy which inspired Jesus to live among us, to die for us and to continually shower His graces upon us. A Divine Mercy Holy Hour will be held today at 3pm in the chapel.

Today Bishop Steve will be celebrating the 10.30am Mass at the Cathedral in Hamilton for all of those killed in the recent horrific terror attacks in Sri Lanka. All of our Masses this weekend will be in union with Bishop Steve and I'm sure thousands of Parish Masses throughout the world. Many of those killed were fellow Catholics. Our hearts cry for them and for all who were cruelly murdered.

After the 9.00am Mass today a Parish Group, committed to the battle against climate change, will plant a kowhai tree in the Parish grounds as a symbolic response to so much rainforest depletion across the world- but especially in the Amazon. You are invited to join them in prayers as they plant the tree and in the signing of a petition which will be sent to the Climate Change Minister, Hon. James Shaw.

On Monday evening at 6.30pm the 'Current of Grace' Prayer Group will have their monthly Meeting. All welcome.

It was lovely to see the great write-up in the 'Gisborne Herald' for Sean and Judy Powers as they celebrated 65 years of Marriage. Congratulations once again!

On Sunday, May 12th, Fr Jack will be leaving us for a well-deserved holiday. He will be returning on June 18th. He will be accompanied by three other very lively mates. For a few weeks New Zealand will be a much quieter place!!

Please remember Sr. Stephanie Kelly, RSJ, who died in Auckland during the week. May she rest in peace.

All the best to our teachers and students as you begin your 2nd Term. We hope your term is busy but heaps of fun!

Christ is risen. Is risen indeed!

Mons Frank.
