Suzanne Aubert News

A formal Wellington diocesan inquiry into the cure of a New Zealander through the alleged intercession of Venerable Suzanne Aubert has been held in Christchurch. While many details of the inquiry are still confidential, the Sisters of Compassion are pleased to advise that the exhaustive inquiry was held over 3 days last month.

Read more of the details and other news of the Sisters in their May 2019 issue of Suzanne Aubert NEWS available from the table in the foyer.

Monsignor Frank's Message

Dear parishioners of St. Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors,

What a glorious week we have enjoyed. The trees are so colourful and the temperature is just right. Give praise to our Creator for the gift of Autumn!

Mr. Phil Simpson, after 15 years of generous service on the Parish Finance Committee, has asked to stand down. With his skills in the building industry, Phil has guided the Parish through some very tricky times; quietly working in the background. Thank-you, Phil, for your immense generosity. You step back from your position with the Parish in good heart!

At Mass next Sunday (26th May) we will be farewelling our dear parishioner Shirley McDowell. On the following Tuesday Shirley will be leaving us to live in Nelson- where her two daughters live. Shirley will be moving into what appears to be a lovely Rest home. We will miss Shirley very much. For years she has attended weekday Masses and been very much a part of our Parish life. She also was very devoted to our chaplaincy at the Gisborne Hospital. Bless you Shirley. You are very much loved.

Next Saturday evening at Mass there will be the Baptism of a wonderful number of Champion College students. Their Baptisms will be integrated into our usual Youth Mass on the 4th Saturday of the month. I know you will remember them all in your prayers.

On Monday in Auckland there will be the Requiem Mass for Brother Campion McMahon. Br Campion was a Marist Brother for 70 years. He was born in Gisborne in 1931, the son of Mervyn and Joan McMahon. He had a brother Denis. Brother was the Principal of Marist Schools in Palmerston North and Masterton. He served for many years in Pakistan and later Tonga. May he rest in peace.

Over the weekend I will be highlighting in my Homilies the death of Jean Vanier- the founder of the world-wide L'Arche Communities for the care of the intellectually disabled. He is a Catholic we can be intensely proud of and take inspiration from.

Kind Wishes, Mons Frank.

News received to date from Fr. Jack:

He has arrived safely in Doha on Monday to commence his travels
