Monsignor Frank's Message

Dear parishioners of St. Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors,

At the end of both Masses this weekend you will have the opportunity to express your interest in joining the Alpha Course which will be beginning next month. Ross Gregory will be at the table in the foyer to record names and the favoured times of those wanting to join the Course. You can also include yourself by filling in the 'Expression of Interest' form in last week's newsletter and dropping it into the Suggestion Box in the foyer. Alpha is a down-to-earth programme which faces up to life's fundamental challenges. I most certainly recommend it to you.

Next weekend Bishop Steve will be with us for the two Masses in Gisborne. At the 9.00am Mass a large group of boys and girls will receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Please keep these boys and girls in your prayers during the coming week. It will be a huge day in their lives.

Today at the 9.00am Mass we welcome members of the Mullooly family who have gathered from far and wide for a family reunion. All are descendants of James and Elizabeth Mullooly who were committed parishioners of St. Mary's many years ago.

Next Sunday (July 28th) we have been invited to a Service at Holy Trinity fare welling Rev. Stephen Donald who has had to resign from his position as leader because of poor health. The Service will begin at 5.30pm.

On Friday a Requiem Mass was held at St. Mark's Pakuranga for Msgr. Ray Green. Msgr Ray was 92 and had been the Parish Priest at Christ the King Owairaka and later at St. Mark's for most of his priestly life.

He was much loved. May he rest in peace.

All the best to our teachers and students as you begin Term 3. Champion College will have an Opening Liturgy at 11.00am on Monday morning in our Church.

On Friday last week I had a fall and managed to tear a swag of tendons in my right arm. For the next few weeks I will be a bit like the Queen- shaking hands or hugging- very much off-limits!!

Kind Wishes, Mons Frank.

Message from Audrey (Parish Administrator)

At the moment I am getting enquiries regarding the Donation Receipts submitted by you to IRD for Year End March 2019. They are being 'declined'. I do have an issue with the IRD at the moment which I am hoping will be resolved quickly and I will keep you informed with progress.

Thank you to the kind parishioners who are helping with the Cleaning of our Church while Trevor is on leave. This is greatly appreciated. Sr Meg seems to be finding all who offer some 'cleaning jobs' to do.
