Suzanne Aubert News

A formal Wellington diocesan inquiry into the cure of a New Zealander through the alleged intercession of Venerable Suzanne Aubert has been held in Christchurch. While many details of the inquiry are still confidential, the Sisters of Compassion are pleased to advise that the exhaustive inquiry was held over 3 days last month.

Read more of the details and other news of the Sisters in their May 2019 issue of Suzanne Aubert NEWS available from the table in the foyer.

Monsignor Frank's Message

Dear parishioners of St. Mary Star of the Sea and all visitors,

Saturday was a wonderful day for our Parish- a day with 14 Baptisms and 1 Reception into the Catholic Church. We give God thanks for His call to these boys and girls and pray that they will all come to a deep faith in the Lord Jesus. On Saturday afternoon we had the Baptisms of Cali and Cole Parata, of Fiske and Ursula Johanson-Robinson and of Mikayla Robinson. On Saturday evening at our Parish Mass, we welcomed Andriana Tirzah into the Church and baptised Maria Bast, Rosa Benson, Luke Brown, Summer Ferris, Iain McClutchie, Anaya Menzies, Bella Neems, Ben Plowman and Alice Sparks, Thank-you to Karyn Sadler for her work in gently preparing the students for this big step. All of the students are a part of the Campion College Sacramental Programme- preparing for First Holy Communion and Confirmation on 28th July.

On Sunday we as a Parish will have the opportunity to farewell Shirley McDowell prior to her leaving to live in Nelson. Shirley is a much loved parishioner and will be missed by us all. God bless you Shirley.

In preparation for the Feast of Pentecost on Sunday June 9th we will have a Week of Prayer praying for a special infilling of the Holy Spirit upon our Parish and all of our loved ones at Pentecost, the Birthday of the Church. From Monday June 3rd until Friday June 7th there will be reflections, prayers and hymns from 6.00pm until 6.45pm. At the beginning of each session, Sister Adrienne will lead us through four Stations of the Resurrection. All 16 Stations will be set up in the Crying Room and at the back of the Church for private use throughout the week before Pentecost.

Congratulations from us all have been sent to Sr. Maree Hogan who is celebrating 70 years as a Sister of St. Joseph this Sunday.

A Charismatic Mass in honour of Our Lady during this Month of May will be celebrated on Monday. Praise and Worship will begin soon after 6.00pm. Mass will begin at 6.30pm. All are most welcome.

Please remember Fr. Chris Austin SM in your prayers. Father died during the week. Father was born in Whakatu, Hastings and for many years was the Rector of St. Augustine's Whanganui. May he rest in peace.

Fr. Jack's cruise ship has now left the Mediterranean and is heading into the Atlantic .Could be rough!

Kind Wishes, Mons Frank.
