TRINITY SUNDAY 2024

Today we celebrate the great mystery of life – God revealed to us as Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Every time we dip our fingers into the font and bless ourselves, we recall the life of the Trinity into which we were baptised. Today we remember that, every day, not only the day of our baptism – we live and move and have our being in God.

It has been great to have the NET Team with us during this past week – and it is good to have Father Richard back also, after his break away. I presided at the funeral service in Taupo for my beloved aunt, Raymond, on Thursday, and this weekend am in Auckland for the 25th Jubilee of Religious Profession of Sister Jill McLoughlin RSJ. Jill and her family will be remembered by many of the older parishioners – her father Bede died back in 2021, and her mother Peg lives in retirement in Hamilton. The priests of the Diocese have a gathering in Tauranga on Thursday, where we will reflect on safeguarding and the ongoing need to ensure that all people in our parishes are safe, especially the vulnerable.

Father Richard will say Mass for the people of Matawai today as well – we send our greetings to them.

Today is the anniversary of the death in 2018 of Pa Yvan Sergy – may he rest in peace. It is good to remember those who have served our community so faithfully, as Pa Yvan did.

Next Saturday, Rebecca Maruszewski will be baptised – we look forward to welcoming Rebecca into our family of faith.

Remember that the deadline for The Star is this coming Saturday – I look forward to the next edition.

I hope you are managing to keep warm.

May you be filled with the life of the Trinity, this day and always
